In the heart of the medieval quarters of Lucca, in front of one of the most known gateways to Piazza Anfiteatro, the square which was once the site of a Roman amphitheatre, since 1860 Osteria Baralla has been welcoming its guests in the fifteenth-century Buonvisi palace. The owners, Lucia and Marco Brotini, manage the restaurant with care and professionalism, not only do they themselves select the menu but they make a point of personally welcoming and looking after their guests. Come along to find a rich and varied menu, where all dishes are prepared with the most select ingredients only, an experience to taste in a warm and friendly atmosphere.

The traditional dishes and exclusive recipes of Osteria Baralla are matched with a wide selection of wines and delicious homemade desserts.
